V The Last Call.

This will be the last issue of THE CLAYTON CITIZEN until the people speak at the polls, and we feel like it is our duty to say a few words before the final blow is struck.

The question as to whether we are to have joint Statehood with Arizona is to be voted upon, and THE CITIZEN is strongly in the belief that every voter in Union county should vote in favor of Statehood. It means much for added prosperity to the entire country. It will give us a prestige we can never have as long as we remain a Territory.

As to the Democratic ticket in Union county it should be elected from top to bottom. The ticket is an exceptionally good one, being made up of men of ability and sound integrity, and the Democratic Executive Committee being WITHOUT A HEAD, it devolves upon all good Democrats to put forth a special effort to see that the ticket is elected.

The Democratic party should win, for it is the champion of the people's right—the enemy of corporation greed, fostering of trusts and the ruthless squandering of the people's money.

If Democrats don't stand together and work in harmony, they can never hope to succeed, and it is just as much your duty to stand by your county nominees as it is State and National.

At Their Old Tricks.

We were in hopes that this election would be conducted in a manner different from the last election—that it would be free of fraud, but in this we are mistaken, for even before election day the Republicans have commenced their fraudulent practices.

The first thing they did was to select for the Democrats on the registration board, a man that can neither read nor write, and almost totally blind. The next thing they did was to place the voting boxes in Democratic precincts in the most remote and out of the way places, far away from the bulk of the voting population. They removed the voting places from Logan and Cimarron to places far away from the majority of the voters. This kind of politics is contemptible in the extreme, and we trust the voters will rebuke such nefarious conduct at the polls Tuesday next.

What Democracy Stands For.

We copy the following extracts from the Democratic platform, adopted at Santa Fe, September 13, 1906:

"We, the Democrats of New Mexico, in delegate convention assembled at Santa Fe, this the 12th day of September, 1906, again record our long continued allegiance to the time honored principles of Democracy as set forth in the Democratic National Platform of 1904, believing as we heartily do, that they make for a better government of, for, and by all of the people.

We take especial pride in the fact that our great national party is justly recognized as the true and only party of the people, devoted to a government in the interest of the masses and not the classes, founded on the Jeffersonian doctrine of the vital governmental truth, "Equal rights to all; special privileges to none"—the distinguishing characteristic of democracy.

"We take further pride in the fact that, although temporarily out of control of the affairs and policy of the national government and of this Territory so that we are unable to put into effect our beneficent principles for the public good, constitute a strong and courageous minority, recognizing the admitted fact that the stronger the minority the greater the safety to our government.

"It is with the profoundest satisfaction and feeling of unusual pride that we witnessed the hearty and most unusual welcome home given by the people of this country, irrespective of party, to the "Great Commoner" and intrepid leader of our party, William Jennings Bryan. We look upon him as the embodiment of the hope and confidence that the common people have in a Democratic form of government.

We declare our favor of joint statehood with Arizona, under the provisions of the enabling act therefor, known as the Hamilton Bill, as it was finally passed by the unanimous vote of democratic and republican members of Congress, and we trust the people of both New Mexico and Arizona will avail themselves of the liberal provisions of the enabling act, to enter the union of states in the only way Congress, in its wisdom, seems willing to provide.

We are in favor of home rule in the appointment to all offices in the territory, and we are also in favor of the fullest self-government possible under the territorial conditions, and the full control of all our internal affairs.

We condemn the present iniquitous fee system in existence in New Mexico for the compensation of county officials, which is a direct result of republican legislation, and by which such officials, are paid greatly in excess of the value of their services to the people of their respective counties, thus imposing unnecessary and burdensome taxation. The fee system is a relic of by-gone days, and we feel that this territory has reached that stage of development and progress which demands its immediate abolition. We pledge the democratic party of New Mexico, and especially its representatives in the Legislative Assembly, to favor and work for the enactment of a law placing all county offices upon a salary basis, and the reduction of salaries where they are excessive under existing statutes.

We emphatically condemn the dishonest election methods of republican officials in some parts of the territory, in padding registration lists with the names of absent, fictitious and alien persons, in tampering with poll books and ballot boxes and making false returns, and we pledge the untiring efforts of our party to the detection and punishment of such high crimes to the end that every American citizen may have a free ballot and a fair count in the exercise of the highest privilege of citizenship.
